

Lotus Notes Support – Consultant (Casual)

- Casual Contract Services for Lotus Notes Professional
- Supplement Your Current Work Portfolio
- Part-Time, Ad Hoc Sydney Based Support

Artis Group (www.artisgroup.com.au) is one of Australia's fastest growing professional services organisations in the enterprise technology market. We take great pride in hiring the very best technical and consulting staff, placing them on challenging projects and supporting them with proven development and mentoring programs. We provide our blue chip client base with second-to-none expertise in applications development, IT consulting and services.

We currently seek the experience and availability of a Lotus Notes applications support professional to connect with Artis with a view to providing future ad hoc support services to our large enterprise clients. You will provide initial problem investigation and analyses, issues resolution, performance improvements and on the odd occasion, get involved with defined pieces of project work.

Your experience and approach to issues investigation and resolution, along with your strong customer service ethic, will make you a trusted, flexible and reliable consulting partner to call upon when required.

For more information please contact Angelika on 8404-5821 or use the “Apply Now” button. Alternatively, you can send a note along with your details to careers@artisgroup.com.au.